

Why record your calls?

Recording your business calls is like giving every employee 5 personal assistants:

Bodyguard: A Versadial call recorder is like a bodyguard, protecting you from lawsuits and resolving disputes by providing searchable and archived recorded evidence. Vital liability protection & security!

Secretary: A Versadial call recorder works like a personal secretary for every employee! Employees can easily correct data-entry mistakes, and remember important details. Reduce expensive data entry errors.

Coach: A Versadial phone recorder works like a coach to help employees improve how they present themselves. Easily train employees by emailing recorded examples of good service. Improve customer satisfaction & loyalty

Analyst: A Versadial phone recorder works like a sales & marketing analyst by helping management hear how customers are responding to their offers, why they buy or what concerns are preventing a sale. Vital in raising sales!

Meeting coordinator: A Versadial phone recorder works like a meeting coordinator by recording phone conferences. Easily play back meeting details and email recordings to those who didn't attend. Improve meeting effectiveness

Versadial call recorders use easy to integrate PC based hardware, and software you can learn in a few minutes. A single recorder can record all your phone lines, let you monitor live calls, automatically archive past calls, and let's you access your recordings at any computer on your network or through the Internet. Password protection, powerful search filters, exportable reports, and quality control tests are also built in. Versadial systems are cost effective, without the seat license fees and mandatory service contracts of our competitors. All systems are covered by a 30 day money back guarantee and a 1 to 3 year warranty.
